A HISTORICAL ATLAS OF POLISH TOWNS

Editor ROMAN CZAJA

VOLUME I ROYAL PRUSSIA AND WARMIA

Editor Wiesław Długokęcki, cooperation Zofia Maciakowska Maps edited by Wiesław Długokęcki, Zofia Maciakowska

BOOK 9

GDAŃSK

Authors

Tomasz Błyskosz, Grzegorz Bukal, Wiesław Długokęcki, Jacek Friedrich, Edmund Kizik, Zofia Maciakowska, Małgorzata Omilanowska-Kiljańczyk, Henryk Paner, Zbigniew Polak, Wojciech Szymański

English translation David Malcolm

Gdańsk University Press Gdańsk 2024 Reviewer prof. dr hab. Zdzisław Noga

Technical editing Ewelina Ewertowska

Cartographic design Witold Hazuka, Dominika Gzowska, Zofia Maciakowska

Typesetting, page layout, cover and title page design Maksymilian Biniakiewicz

On cover and title page: Gdańsk. View of the city from Biskupa Górka, 1617, National Library of Sweden, KoBDelaGStöf.163

The publication was financed by: The City of Gdańsk The Rector of the University of Gdańsk The Faculty of History of the University of Gdańsk

© Copyright by Uniwersytet Gdański Wydawnictwo Uniwersytetu Gdańskiego

ISBN 978-83-8206-683-8 ISBN (series) 978-83-8206-684-5

Gdańsk University Press ul. Armii Krajowej 119/121, 81-824 Sopot tel. +48 58 523 11 37, tel. kom. +48 725 991 206 e-mail: wydawnictwo@ug.edu.pl wydawnictwo.ug.edu.pl

Bookstore: wydawnictwo.ug.edu.pl/sklep/

Print and binding Zakład Poligrafii Uniwersytetu Gdańskiego ul. Armii Krajowej 119/121, 81-824 Sopot tel. +48 58 523 14 49

Contents

Introduction	5	2. Infrastructure · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	45
		2.1. Royal buildings	45
Chapter I		2.2. Municipal buildings	45
The Gdańsk settlement complex up to the beginning		2.3. The buildings and spaces belonging to associations	46
of the fourteenth century	6	2.4. Market places and commercial facilities · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	47
I. Geographical environment		2.5. Textile production facilities · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	48
2. The Gdańsk settlement complex in the early Middle Ages	7	2.6. Industrial equipment and sites	49
2.1. The stronghold and the surrounding settlement up to the end		2.7. Port facilities, shipbuilding warehouses · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	50 of the twelfth century	7	3. Sacred topography - churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses,
2.2. The self-governing town		hospitals	51
2.2.1. Emergence and location · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	8
2.2.2. The topography of the self-governing town	IO	Chapter VI
2.2.3. The port of the self-governing town	II	The urban space of Gdańsk around 1807	54
2.2.4. Landed possessions	II	I. Spatial borders and divisions	54
3. The Gdańsk castrum and surrounding settlement	П	2. Infrastructure · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	54
3.1. The Dominican Monastery	H	2.1. Royal and municipal buildings	54
3.2. Settlement in the St John's and in the St Mary's District	12	2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to associations	56
		2.3. Market places and business/commercial infrastructure	57
Chapter II		2.4. Textile production	57
The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk settlement complex		2.5. Manufacturing equipment and sites	58
(historical Gdańsk), 1308–1454/1466	13	2.6. Taverns, inns, and hostelries	58
1. New regulation of the space of the Gdańsk settlement complex	13	2.7. Port equipment, storage facilities, shipyards	59
2. Main Town	13	3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, monasteries,	-//
2.1. External limits	13	hospitals	59
2.2. The spatial development of the St Mary's and St John's districts	15		"
2.3. The spatial development of the suburbs of the Main Town	15	Chapter VII
2.3.1. Stare Przedmieście (Old Suburb)	15	Views of Gdańsk and street scenes from the second half of the sixteenth
2.3.2. Granaries · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	16	century to the beginning of the nineteenth century	62
2.3.3. Sheds and ropewalks	17	The panorama of Gdańsk from 1573	62
2.3.4. Długie Ogrody Street (Langgarten)	17	2. The panorama from 1592/1593	62
2.3.5. The western suburb	17	3. The work of Aegidius Dickmann (1617)	63
3. The Radunia Canal and the national road	18	4. Peter Willer's illustrations to the work of Reinhold Curicke from 1687	64
4. The Old Town	18	5. Matthaeus Deisch's album of views of Gdańsk from 1761–1765	65
5. Osiek (Hakelwerk)	20	6. Gdańsk in views from the late eighteenth	0)
6. The Young Town	20	and early nineteenth centuries	65
	20	and early inneteentil centuries	0)
7. Infrastructure development in the Gdańsk settlement complex	20	Chapter VIII
	20	Chapter VIII Special functional changes within the harders
Chapter III		Spatial-functional changes within the borders	66
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460	22	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945	66
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement	22	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  I. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development	66
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex	22 22	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration	66 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex  1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk	22 22 22	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city	66 67 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town	22 22 22 23	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes	66 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town	22 22 22 23 25	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left	66 67 67 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek	22 22 22 23 25 25	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition	66 67 67 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town	22 22 22 23 25 25 25	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure	66 67 67 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure	22 22 22 23 25 25 25 26	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  I. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals,	66 67 67 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings	22 22 22 23 25 25 25 26 26	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  I. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites	66 67 67 69 70
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations	22 22 23 25 25 25 26 26 26 27	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  I. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts	66 67 67 67
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure	22 22 23 25 25 25 26 26 27 27	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption	66 67 67 69 70
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities	22 22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  I. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts	66 67 67 69 70
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment	22 22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich	66 67 67 69 70
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards	22 22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX	66 67 67 69 70
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses,	22 22 22 23 25 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866	666 677 679 700 722 72
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards	22 22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  I. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development  2. State and city administration  3. Gdańsk as a garrison city  4. Spatial-functional changes  5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition  6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure  7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites  8. Changes in the functions and status of districts  9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866  I. Borders and internal divisions of the city	666 677 677 699 700
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals	22 22 22 23 25 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  I. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 I. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings	666 6767 697 707 727 727 7575
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV	22 22 22 23 25 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure	666 677 677 697 707 727 757 757
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex	22 22 23 25 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway	666 6767 697 707 727 727 7575
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings	666 677 677 697 707 727 757 757
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866  1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure	666 677 677 707 727 757 757 767 767 778
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites	666 677 677 707 727 757 757 757
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osick 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure – the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns	666 677 677 707 727 757 757 767 767 778
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure – the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites	666 677 679 722 725 757 757 766 767 778 787 797
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order 4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards	666 677 697 72 72 75 75 76 76 76 77 78 78
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order 4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards 11. Sacred topography — churches, cemeteries, schools, hospitals,	666 677 679 722 725 757 757 766 767 778 787 797
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order 4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street 5. Spatial changes in the western suburb 6. The creation and development of the Lower Town	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards	666 677 679 722 725 757 757 766 767 778 787 797
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex  1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk  1.2. The Main Town  1.3. The Old Town  1.4. Osiek  1.5. The Young Town  2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure  2.1. Municipal buildings  2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations  2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure  2.4. Textile production facilities  2.5. Industrial sites and equipment  2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards  3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815  1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815  2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes  3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order  4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street  5. Spatial changes in the western suburb  6. The creation and development of the Lower Town  7. Public, business, and industrial infrastructure	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31 36 36 37 37 38 39 39 40	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards 11. Sacred topography — churches, cemeteries, schools, hospitals, and care facilities	666 677 679 72 72 75 75 76 76 76 77 78 78 79 79 80
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order 4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street 5. Spatial changes in the western suburb 6. The creation and development of the Lower Town 7. Public, business, and industrial infrastructure 8. Changes in sacred topography and in the system of social care	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31 36 36 37 37 38 39 39	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards 11. Sacred topography — churches, cemeteries, schools, hospitals, and care facilities	666 677 679 72 72 75 75 76 76 76 77 78 78 79 79 80
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex  1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk  1.2. The Main Town  1.3. The Old Town  1.4. Osiek  1.5. The Young Town  2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure  2.1. Municipal buildings  2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations  2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure  2.4. Textile production facilities  2.5. Industrial sites and equipment  2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards  3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815  1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815  2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes  3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order  4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street  5. Spatial changes in the western suburb  6. The creation and development of the Lower Town  7. Public, business, and industrial infrastructure	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31 36 36 37 37 38 39 39 40	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure – the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards 11. Sacred topography – churches, cemeteries, schools, hospitals, and care facilities  Chapter X  Changes in urban planning in Gdańsk at the end of the nineteenth	666 677 679 72 72 75 75 76 76 76 77 78 78 79 79 80
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order 4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street 5. Spatial changes in the western suburb 6. The creation and development of the Lower Town 7. Public, business, and industrial infrastructure 8. Changes in sacred topography and in the system of social care 9. Gdańsk in Prussia. The First Free City of Gdańsk	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31 36 36 37 37 38 39 40 41	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards 11. Sacred topography — churches, cemeteries, schools, hospitals, and care facilities  Chapter X  Changes in urban planning in Gdańsk at the end of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries in the context	666 677 677 727 727 727 757 757 767 767 778 779 779 800 800
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order 4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street 5. Spatial changes in the western suburb 6. The creation and development of the Lower Town 7. Public, business, and industrial infrastructure 8. Changes in sacred topography and in the system of social care 9. Gdańsk in Prussia. The First Free City of Gdańsk  Chapter V	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31 36 36 37 37 38 39 40 41	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards 11. Sacred topography — churches, cemeteries, schools, hospitals, and care facilities  Chapter X Changes in urban planning in Gdańsk at the end of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries in the context of the defortification of European cities	666 677 679 72 72 75 75 76 76 76 77 78 78 79 79 80
Chapter III The Gdańsk urban settlement complex around 1454/1460  1. Borders, spatial divisions, and settlement in the Gdańsk urban settlement complex 1.1. The Teutonic Order's castle in Gdańsk 1.2. The Main Town 1.3. The Old Town 1.4. Osiek 1.5. The Young Town 2. Public, trade, and industrial infrastructure 2.1. Municipal buildings 2.2. Buildings and sites belonging to public associations 2.3. Market squares and trading infrastructure 2.4. Textile production facilities 2.5. Industrial sites and equipment 2.6. Port facilities, warehouses, shipyards 3. Sacred topography – churches, schools, cemeteries, religious houses, hospitals  Chapter IV The spatial-functional development of the Gdańsk urban complex (historical Gdańsk), 1454/1466–1815 1. Factors determining the development of the city, 1454–1815 2. Fortification work and spatial-functional changes 3. The building up of the area left after the removal of fortifications and formerly belonging to the Teutonic Order 4. Changes to the buildings at the Granary Area and Szafarnia Street 5. Spatial changes in the western suburb 6. The creation and development of the Lower Town 7. Public, business, and industrial infrastructure 8. Changes in sacred topography and in the system of social care 9. Gdańsk in Prussia. The First Free City of Gdańsk	22 22 23 25 25 26 26 27 27 28 29 30 31 36 36 37 37 38 39 40 41	Spatial-functional changes within the borders of historical Gdańsk, 1815–1945  1. Gdańsk in Prussia and Germany: factors in its development 2. State and city administration 3. Gdańsk as a garrison city 4. Spatial-functional changes 5. Removing the Gdańsk city fortifications and construction on the sites left after their demolition 6. Commercial, industrial, and port infrastructure 7. Sacred topography, schools, cemeteries, public care facilities, hospitals, cultural sites 8. Changes in the functions and status of districts 9. Gdańsk in the period of the Second Free City and its absorption into the Third Reich  Chapter IX  The urban space of Gdańsk in 1866 1. Borders and internal divisions of the city 2. Government administrative buildings 3. Military infrastructure 4. State infrastructure — the railway 5. Municipal and public buildings 6. Communal infrastructure 7. Market places, commercial sites 8. Hotels and inns 9. Industrial facilities, equipment, and sites 10. Port, storage yards, and shipyards 11. Sacred topography — churches, cemeteries, schools, hospitals, and care facilities  Chapter X  Changes in urban planning in Gdańsk at the end of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries in the context	666 677 677 727 727 727 757 757 767 767 778 779 779 800 800

3. The demolition of the Gdańsk embankments and the development of the areas of the former fortifications
4. Results of defortification 8	7
Chapter XI
The destruction and the rebuilding of the centre of Gdańsk after 1945, and its development in terms of urban planning and architecture
between 1956 and 1989 8	8
I. Scope and scale of destruction 8	8
2. Ideas for reconstruction · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	q
3. The reconstruction of the Main Town from 1949 to around 1960 90	1
4. Other parts of the historical town centre before 1956
5. The transformation of the town centre between 1956 and 1989
6. Results
o. Results	2
Abbreviations	5
Bibliography of the history of the city of Gdańsk (selection) 90	6
Bibliography9	6
Sources	6
General studies of the city's history	6
Building history and city space	6
Social and economic history	6
History of art, culture and churches	6
Cartography	6
Maps, plans, and illustrations 99	7
Polish-German list of names of the surrounding villages,	_